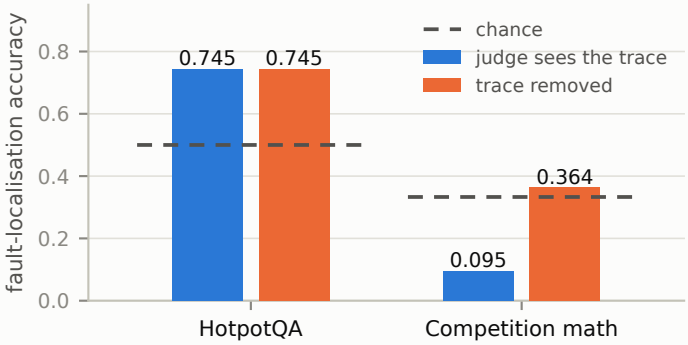
A frontier judge gains nothing from the trace, and on math is misled below chance



With the trace the judge blames the module that failed to CATCH the error rather than the one that made it. Human labels on 20 natural failures show the same bias (both judge errors, none in reverse).